Nurses Aides, Orderlies and Attendants help provide basic care for patients in hospitals and residents of long-term care facilities including nursing homes.

Under the direction of the nursing staff, they perform duties such as feeding, bathing and dressing patients. They observe patients' conditions including measuring and recording food and liquid intake and output, taking vital signs, and reporting changes to nursing staff.

Nurses Aides, Orderlies and Attendants help patients and residents to move, reposition, or lift them to make them more comfortable. They also change patients' linens and attend to patient requests in their living environment whether it is temporary or permanent.

Nurses Aides and Attendants typically need a postsecondary certificate or award and must pass their state's competency exam. Orderlies generally have at least a high school diploma.

Reach these Nurses Aides, Orderlies and Attendants for offers on Seminars, Subscriptions, Books, Recruitment and any other healthcare related offer.

The Nurses Aides, Orderlies and Attendants list is NCOA'd quarterly.

State counts available upon request.
