This file contains Bankers, Bank Tellers, Loan Officers and Loan Processors.

Bankers are senior executives in banks that perform a variety of banking functions at Headquarter and Branch banks.

Tellers/Bank Tellers are responsible for accurate banking transactions consisting of check cashing, making deposits, accepting loan payments, processing withdrawals and providing bank checks, money orders and traveler's checks. Generally, tellers work in the front office of banks.

Bank Loan Officers facilitate lending by finding potential clients and helping them to apply for banking loans. Loan officers gather personal information about clients and businesses to ensure an informed decision regarding their credit worthiness and the probability of repayment. Loan officers may also provide guidance to prospective borrowers who have problems qualifying for traditional loans at banks.

Bank Loan Processors help facilitate the whole loan process by finalizing the lending deal. They have product knowledge of VH, FHA Conventional and Sub Prime lending loans. Bank Loan Processors assure compliance with banks, regulatory and investor guidelines is met.
